

BISCAYNE BABBLE

Take a taste test along the boulevard

BY SIDONIE SAWYER
sidoniesawyer@gmail.com

● Taste of MIMO: The annual Taste of MIMO offers serious treat-samplings by local restaurants. Hosted by the MIMO Biscayne Association, showcase the historic district on Biscayne Boulevard between Northeast 67th and 77th streets, site of the recently relocated kitsch Coppertone girl sign. The event will run Saturdays from Jan. 31 to May 2 in conjunction with the Cinco de MiMo Festival. Taking place on the front porch of 22 eateries such as Che Soprano, le Café, Moonchine and Kingdom. Each taste costs between $2 and $4. For more information, call 305-609-4288.

SAWYER

JOHN VANBEEKUM/MIAMI HERALD STAFF

ICONIC MIAMI IMAGES: The Coppertone Girl sign has been relocated to Biscayne Boulevard and Northeast 73rd Street in the MiMo historic district.