

ART & CULTURE

CULTURE BRIEFS

MiMo Goes Bonkers for Basel

The MiMo Biscayne Boulevard Historic District gets in the Art Basel spirit with two special evenings of art, food, music, fashion, and fun. On Friday, December 7, and Sunday, December 9, from 6:00 to 10:00 p.m., neighbors, visitors, and international Baselites are invited to tour the MiMo District and drop in on galleries, stores, and restaurants, all of which will keep late hours in support of the festivities. The self-guided tour begins at the Sacco Gallery on the Boulevard at 64th Street, heads north past the Leiter Gallery at 69th Street, and continues up to 77th Street.

Along the way, merchants and restaurateurs will be offering special promotions and menus, entertainment, and other inviting activities. Participating businesses include Café Le Glacier, Casa Toscana Ristorante, Che Sopranos, Divine Trash, Dogma Grill, Freckles, Galata Tower Shop, HiHo Batik, Karma Car Wash & Café, Kingdom, Moonchine, Open Door Furnishings, Red Light Dining Lounge, the Transit Shop at the Vagabond motel, Underdog Denim, Upper Eastside Garden & Curb Appeal, UVA 69, Vine Wine Shop and Tasting Loft, and Wine 69.

For more information, contact MiMo Biscayne Association president Fran Rollason at MiMi-On-BiBo@comcast.net or visit www.MiMoBoulevard.org.